Congratulations on your engagement

Your Ceremony, Your Way

WARM, FUN & THOUGHTFUL CEREMONIES · MID NORTH COAST

Hello, and congratulations. I'm so glad you're here

Getting engaged is one of life's loveliest moments, and deciding to marry the person you adore is worth celebrating in a way that feels completely, unmistakably you.

I'm Celia, a celebrant with a lifelong connection to the beautiful Mid North Coast, based in Coffs Harbour. For me, being a celebrant isn't about reciting the same words over and over. It's about getting to know your story and shaping a ceremony around it: the in-jokes, the how-you-met, the people and places that matter. My style is warm, a little playful, and always heartfelt. On the day you'll feel relaxed, held, and free to simply soak it all in.

With love, Celia x

WHY I DO THIS

This is my son and daughter-in-law, on the day I became a celebrant, so I could marry them myself. It's why I love this work: family, and the people who matter most, right at the centre of it all.

Celia's Process

How a ceremony flows

Every ceremony is different, but most follow a gentle rhythm. Think of this as the frame; we fill it with words and moments that are entirely yours. Usually 20 to 30 minutes, start to finish.

This flow reflects the Full Service and Intimate Celebration ceremonies. The Simple & Sweet package uses a shorter, ready-made wording focused on the legal requirements.

1

Welcome & acknowledgement

I greet your guests, set the tone, and acknowledge the Country we're gathered on and the people who matter to you.

2

Your story

How you met, how you knew, and what makes the two of you, you, told with warmth and often a laugh or two.

3

Readings & rituals

A friend or family member might share a reading, or you include one of the personal rituals you've chosen.

4

The vows

The heart of the ceremony: your promises to one another, whether traditional, personal, or a mix of both.

5

Ring exchange

A ring placed on each finger as a token of the words just spoken: simple, timeless, and full of meaning.

6

Signing the register

The legal moment, with your two witnesses, and a lovely chance for a song and a breath before the finale.

7

Pronouncement & the kiss

The words you've been waiting for, a first kiss as a married couple, and a joyful walk back up the aisle.

Tip Almost any moment here can be made personal: a reading from a friend, a ritual with meaning to you, or music that tells your story. There's no wrong way to make it yours.

Add on: Master of Ceremonies

Your wedding doesn't end with the "I do's." The reception is where the real celebrating begins: laughter, speeches, dancing and unforgettable moments. With me as your MC, the flow of your celebration is in safe, professional and fun hands, so you can relax and enjoy every minute.

As your MC, I will

- Welcome your guests and set the tone for the celebration
- Introduce the wedding party and the key moments
- Guide the evening with announcements and smooth transitions
- Liaise with your vendors (photographer, caterer, band or DJ) to keep everything running on time
- Bring energy, warmth and clarity to the room so you can relax and enjoy every moment

Why me as your MC?

You already know me from your ceremony, which means:

- I understand your story and your style
- I can keep the tone consistent right through the day
- You won't need a friend or family member to "wing it"

$600 when booked with a ceremony package

Stand-alone MC bookings $750

Let's party!

YOUR TRUSTED CELEBRANT

Why choose Celia?

Personalised experience

I take the time to get to know you and your story, to craft a ceremony that feels uniquely yours.

Stress-free process

I handle all the legalities and logistics so you can focus on enjoying your big day.

Professional & caring

From our first meeting to the day you say "I do," I'm here to guide and support you.

Comprehensive setup

I come equipped with all the essentials, including a high-quality PA system, so every word is heard clearly.

Local knowledge Based in Coffs Harbour, I know the Mid North Coast's best venues, vendors and quirks inside out, so your day runs smoothly wherever you choose to say "I do."

What makes a great celebrant

Your celebrant sets the tone for the whole ceremony, so it's worth choosing someone who feels right. Whoever you meet with, here's a little checklist to guide you.

-  They listen more than they talk
A great celebrant is curious about you first, so your ceremony sounds like you, not a template.
-  Their style suits yours
Warm, funny, formal, relaxed: the tone should feel like a natural fit for the day you're imagining.
-  They make the legals easy
Paperwork, timing and lodgement all handled clearly and calmly, so you never have to worry about it.
-  They're fully equipped
A quality PA system and a confident delivery mean every guest hears every word, indoors or out.
-  They put you at ease
From the first chat to the final kiss, you feel relaxed, supported and in safe, capable hands.
-  Couples rave about them
Genuine reviews and happy couples are the surest sign of a celebrant who delivers on the day.

If it helps: this is exactly how I love to work with every couple.

Questions couples often ask

How far in advance do we need to lodge the paperwork?

A Notice of Intended Marriage (NOIM) must be lodged with your celebrant at least one calendar month (and no more than 18 months) before your wedding date. It's best to get it in early; I'll walk you through every step.

What documents do we need?

Original birth certificates or passports, and photo ID. If either of you has been married before, you'll also need proof the marriage has ended (a divorce certificate or a death certificate). I'll confirm exactly what applies to you.

What actually happens on the day?

I arrive early to set up the PA, meet your key people and check in with your other vendors. I'll cue the music, guide you and your witnesses through the signing, and make sure everything flows so you can stay completely present.

How far will you travel?

I'm based on the Coffs Coast and love working right across the Mid North Coast: from Crescent Head in the south, up to Yamba in the north, and inland to Dorrigo in the west. If your venue sits a little beyond, just ask, as I'm always happy to travel for the right couple. A small travel fee may apply for locations outside the Coffs region.

Do you help us write the ceremony?

I write the whole ceremony for you. Through our conversations I capture what you want and the story of your relationship, then craft it into words that sound like you. Most couples choose not to hear it in advance, so it lands as a genuine surprise on the day. If you'd like to write your own vows, I'm also very happy to help: guiding you through what to include and how to find the words, so they still sound unmistakably like you.

Can you MC our reception too?

Yes. Master of Ceremonies is available as an add-on at $600 when booked alongside a ceremony package, or $750 as a stand-alone booking, so the same warm, relaxed style carries right through your reception.

Still wondering? Any questions at all, you can always reach out. I'm here to help every step of the way, from our first chat to your last dance.
